emerging artist exhibition

Joshua Sutton Smith also known as JBOI is an illustrator and drawer born in Melbourne, Australia but has spent the majority of his life living in Tasmania. Joshua has been drawing since childhood but officially began his artistic journey in 2018. Currently in his final semester pursuing a Bachelor of Fine Arts at the University of Tasmania, he has been utilizing art as a therapeutic outlet, drawing from pop culture and cartoons in all forms.

Joshua creates pieces that externalize his internal world, delving into the depths of his emotions and experiences. As he continues to evolve as an artist, Joshua remains committed to exploring new avenues of expression and sharing his creative vision.
