

alex wanders —
gleanings

Most of the subject matter in this exhibition has been gleaned from my local surroundings.

Each scene is a suggestion that what is in front of our eyes may not always be quite as straightforward as we first think.

Through a variety of pictorial devices, these paintings nudge us away from the familiar towards the unfamiliar and enigmatic.

new
paintings

14.02.25 —
10.03.25